Foreword

Upon having arrived at this long-awaited time of graduation, we would like to leave behind a permanent record of our class. It is with such an idea that we have planned this book—that in our future lives we may remember the highlights of these years, our sports and our clubs, our teachers and schoolmates.

As we look back on our past school days, we cannot help being a little sad at having gone through the best years of our lives. However, we realize that we have accomplished much during this time and that we shall use this twelve years' accumulation of knowledge in our future lives.

So, with much gratitude to all of you who have helped us with this annual, we present the 1947 Mellon Patch.

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of Putnam High School, dedicate our 1947 Mellon Patch to Miss Estelle McKenzie, our faithful teacher and friend throughout our high school career. She has been and is a prime factor in the molding of the characters of her students, and it is with our deepest gratitude for her loyalty and faithfulness that we dedicate this annual to her.

Alma Mater

FIRST VERSE:

Once again as our school mates assemble,
We fain would lift our hearts in song,
To our high school, our dear Alma Mater,
Let gladness our moments prolong.
We are proud of our lads and our lassies,
Of honors won in days gone by;
So here's a cheer for our old high school,
For our old high school—our dear old high.

CHORUS:

Here's to our classes,
Here's to our lassies,
Here's to the lads they adore.
Here's to the Seniors, so mighty,
Juniors so flighty, Freshies and Sophomores.
Let mirth and gladness banish all sadness,
And as the days go by,
You'll find us ready and steady
Always boosting for our old high.

SECOND VERSE:

Soon for us, will our school days be ended
And dreams of youth that fade so fast,
And we know that our hearts oft will ponder
On mem'ries of scenes that are past.
There are joys that will long be remembered
And friendships, too, that ne'er will die.
So here's a cheer for our old high school,
For old high school—our dear old high.

CLASS PROPHECY

Toby Cameron is finally going to graduate this year; he has a son old enough to do his homework.

Gene Carre, of the bewitching smile and cute winks is now head football coach at Georgia State. We understand why the girls all like football.

Bob Fridy, still working at Oliver and Garrett's, is the only one of their employeës that manages to make more money than Mr. Oliver.

Bill (it used to be "Sweet William," but now its "Big Bad Bill") Harper continues to attend the Saturday night dances at the Gym. He's generally a little late, but all the girls get to dance when he gets there.

Richard "Genius" Fridy is now manager of the ladies' ready-to-wear section at Belk Lindsy's department store.

Fred Heini failed to persuade Margaret Kummer to marry him and is now living as a bachelor at Kenwood.

Douglas (I love Georgia) Lewis, to the disgust of all the women has started the "Palatka Bachelors' Club," and is assisted by Bill Taylor.

Mrs. Steve Broadway, the former Charlotte Cross, is now in Atlantic City competing for the title of "Mrs. America" of 1957.

Burton Strange is competing for title of "World's Quietest Man." He has spoken not a word for the past ten years.

Bill Taylor is now a foreign newspaper correspondent. While making a tour of India, he is visiting with his relatives there.

Jack Williams has started a chain of grocery stores; however he is still using the Groceteria as his headquarters.

The Senior Class of '57" has co-dedicated their annual to the two oldest members of P. H. S.—Miss McKenzie and Leroy Zetrouer.

Lola Blake and Anderson Brown are helping Lorry and Faye raise a football team.

Wynonah Cannon now has Dillion wearing a ring through his nose, so she can lead him around with less trouble.

Martha Cobb is now a Hollywood commentator. Her biting sarcasm is dreaded by even the best of the stars.

The city passed an ordinance limiting a family to 15 children. Harriette and Bill Fair are under a $500 bond, and are still begging for just one more chance.

Zaida Hall has a collection of blue silk lounging pajamas to match those Bob Turner wears.

Mildred Herring has gotten tired of getting a new car every year, so her Dad gave her a "Rocket Plane" for Christmas.

Evelyn "He is Not Thirty" June is now running a kindergarten for the children of P. H. S. members of '47. She spends most of her time trying to keep Harriette Fair's 15 children from fighting with hers.

Betty "Mouth" Knotts is now broadcasting over station W. W. P. F. without aid of a microphone. The tone is very good.

Ozella Moody is still riding in Plymell's taxi, free of charge, just to keep Lewis from being lonesome.

Bernice "Feet" Dawdy, having given up in the race for Kendrick, has brought Zam-zi-Bar back into the family and employed Tommy Glisson as her bar-tender.

Juanita Zeigler is still having too much fun taking Myrna Williams' boy friends away to settle down with one man.

Margaret Kummer now has bigger and better cars for her pick-ups.

Mildred Clark has given up her job as Miss Farrar's assistant, to become the life partner of the cattle punching he-man, Ed Kummer.

Faye McGrath Anderson can easily be seen in the football stadium. She monopolizes the place by waving diapers at her all-American hubby, Lorry.

Nellie Werkheiser is a success. She married a 65-year-old multi-millionaire, and has a brand new car all her own to cruise Lemon Street with.

J. W. Warwick is world heavyweight champion and has Bill Graves for his manager. Jack "Hamburger" Hayes is still taking lessons. Maybe some day he'll get strength enough to knock somebody down.

Jackie "Toothpick" Watkins left Clyde Middleton to camp by himself in Pomona to be the cashier in Dickie Bond's grocery store.

We see now that Richard Mathews is teaching English in good old P. H. S., and Helenjane Tilghman is STILL helping him write themes on "Black Bass."

Martha Lou Thomas and Jimmy Middleton have settled down to raise another generation of Middletons.

Winifred Strom is teaching First Aid in Putnam High. She stayed on so she could tell jokes to the boys.

Horace Hicks is still paying damages to Ruth "Oh My Back" Canon for the accident during the selling of tickets of the junior play.

Andrew Cannon is still in high school, telling everyone he sees of his narrow escapes while in "This Man's Navy."

Clarence Day now operates the open-air market across from the school all by himself. We hear that he lost over $2,000 last year, but he says it's because he eats the profit.

Lucille Simmons eloped last week with the iceman. We're sure they'll do a good business, Lucille always did give the boys the cold shoulder.

Bobby Stephens has become governor of Washington, D. C. He talked Congress into seeing the necessity of its having one. We can easily understand how he did that.

Lorraine Taylor has just opened at the Ritz in New York as a featured acrobat. Her twins sometimes join in the act with her.

Phyllis Yeagley is still wishing they'd build a navy base in Palatka. In her opinion, peace time and getting a man just don't go together.

Carey Ferrell and Franklin Bray have opened a funeral parlor. Carey plays for the services, and Franklin does the embalming. They're about to run Joe Crabbe out of business.

Madalene Kennedy is running an orphanage for boys in Keystone. The rules say that they must leave at the age of 16, but if that is the case, they must start shaving at 6 months from the looks of things.

While waiting for Ken to get his divorce from Louise, Katherine Nelson is helping Madalene out in the orphanage. It's rumored that she feels more than motherly toward Charles Gravat who's enrolled there.

Neal Benedict is a famous engineer. His latest achievement was building a skyland drive across the Atlantic Ocean to keep people from getting seasick.

Becky Breland is now Mrs. Robert Pope. We just heard that young Becky and Bobby are mascots for the senior class of '57.

Sibyl (I'm Beginning to Wonder) Bullock, gave up trying to find a man and is now Florida's first woman representative in Congress.

Merle Cannon has moved to North Carolina. She likes the kind of men they raise up there. So do a couple other seniors we know.

Bettie Fitzgerald has finally decided on a member of the Lewis family. The question is, which one?

Betty Jean Rogero is running a boarding house now. Most of her roomers are bachelor school teachers as she is still trying to find a man she likes.

Don El Wilkinson is STILL running around trying to find a girl with money enough for him to consider going with!

Johnny Rogero now has his own band with Bobby "Stooge" Ryals as his assistant, telling on the ones who talk, and giving demerits.

Bobby Webb, accompanied by his wife, Joyce, is now opening at the Palace in New York. They say for swooning girls, he even has Sinatra beat.

Joe Bradshaw and Lavonia Hitchcock are raising pigs on their farm. Oh, yes, we forgot to add that they're raising little Bradshaws' too.

Mary Kathryn Palmer and Daniel Boone have their own clothing store and are doing a thriving business. Mary Kathryn models the clothes.

Never let it be said that the Crosby girls couldn't get a man. Helen isn't far behind her sisters. She already has one on the string.

Billy Bass is with our armed forces in China. He made private first class last week and sent all his friends a picture post card telling them about it.

Charles Gravatt let the cat out of the bag! He just announced his secret marriage to Bettye "Peroxide" Fitzgerald.

John Knight has taken over Miss Boyd's classes and runs them the way he thinks they should be.

Mitchell Owen is now an animal trainer for Ringling Brothers Circus. He always did like to camp in the woods.

Edith Brown still makes a wish every night that she will be Betty Knott's sister before long. A life without a man just isn't worth living.

Nona Murphy is having to learn fractions again in order to help her young daughter who is in the fourth grade.

Wonders never cease. Sam McCauley has reformed and is now a Baptist minister. His Dad is in Glendale Hospital recovering from the shock.

Ruth Rogers has moved to East Palatka with Andy McLain. They just got married last month and have been on their honeymoon.

Thelma Nobles said she was getting tired of climbing a step ladder to kiss her husband, Hence Allen, goodbye every morning, so she is installing an escalator.

Barbara Robinson, who lives next door to Shady Rest, got tired a couple years ago of staying home, so she got a job next door. She is now billed as "Babs the Blonde" and draws many customers to "Eat, Drink, and be Merry."

Ruth O'Connor entered her son in a Navy Academy, and she and her husband are sailing the high seas in a wash tub.

Patsy Stephens, the new truant officer, has turned Palatka into a school kids' paradise. Kids that go too regularly are fined $5 or made to go fishing for five continuous days.

Bobby Richardson's future looks a little dim. We don't know much about him that would, er—do for the annual. Suppose you ask Margaret Kummer; she'd know.

Kendrick Major has an ideal set-up. When Louise is home, she's his girl. When she's gone, Katherine is his only love; but what we don't understand is how Laura Godard fits in the picture. Triangles are bad business, Ken.

Robert "Dog Ears" Monroe, with his bass horn, now has his own Hill Billy Band and is playing at the San Mateo Woman's Club every Saturday night.

How can we ever forget that first day of school? There we all were, behind our mother's skirts, scared to death. Then, twelve years seemed like an eternity, but now . . . Remember how some of us would get lost the first two or three days and have to be looked for? Soon the strangeness wore off and school was like a second home to us. Certain girls (we wouldn't dare mention their names) early proved their ambitions when they chased Kendrick for a kiss . . . some fun, eh, Ken? . . . How can we forget those plays we put on, and how proud we were when we gave them at the High School on that huge stage (well, that's how it looked then)—one would think we were budding Bernhards.

Somehow, we all got promoted to the fourth grade—that was upstairs, and did we feel big! But many of us, for the first time, faced reality . . . we discovered there was no Easter Bunny, and even worse, no Santa Claus. However, we weathered this and settled down to thermometers, geography, and, oh yes, long division.

What with all the picnics and school papers, the last years of grammar school passed quickly. Those annual picnics were held at Silver Lake . . . Remember how we raced each other in the consumption of food? And how about that "Cave Man" picnic in the sixth grade . . . Oh, it was rough all right!!

Somehow, though, we actually got to the seventh grade . . . Our big moment, for we entered High School! We really felt important then! We wouldn't let our mothers come with us to register for the first time in P. H. S. We were all brought down to earth, however, when we met Miss Drennan, and crouched under our desks every time she moved to keep from being hit by erasers. One of our new members (he's still with us, so we can't tell you who he is) started off with a bang when he pinched one of the girls and got hit over the head with a board. Our history class took on a new meaning when the war started, and Mrs. Carter devoted her classes to the discussion of it.

In Mr. Wycoff's class in the eighth grade we learned more corny jokes and football plays than we did history and science. And, oh! how we loved to dance under the hypnotic spell of Mr. Crutchfield, our Math teacher. Our biggest decision in the eighth grade was choosing Evelyn June and Kendrick Major for the American Legion Award.

How proud we were when we finally reached the stage where we could yell "Freshies" in the school song. Our poor lungs are still suffering from our enthusiastic outbursts of our Freshman Year. One of the main highlights of that year was the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom, when Lucille Simmons was our representative. Some of the lively girls of our class were elected waitresses, and it can be safely said that they put on one of the best programs ever to be presented.

Those never-to-be-forgotten tenth grade classes with (sigh!) Miss Rogers were filled with uproarious shouts and whistles from the MEN of our class. Ben Breland was our representative that year to the Banquet, while some of the less fortunate ones had to be content to be on the outside looking in.

Our Junior year was not only the busiest, but also the most exciting for the girls who, for the first time, flashed their diamonds and practically blinded everyone. Our Junior Play, "Shadows in The Night," under the direction of Mrs. Harlowe Merryday, really made a hit. For some of us that was our first year to go to the Prom, and we really worked hard to make it our best for the dignified Seniors.

As all good things must come to an end, so must the class of '47. As we look back over these happy days, we realize that the best part of our life was spent in preparing for the future, and we shall use this twelve years' accumulation of knowledge in the future . . . be it on the W. P. A. or in the White House. From the time we were in the first grade—young, innocent, and dumbfounded—we have been looking forward to the day of all days—Graduation!

OUR FOOTBALL SCORES AND HIGHLIGHTS

The Putnam High football team started the year under the guiding hand of Coaches Eddie Joe Long and Pete Maman, against Lake Butler. The Maroons grabbed an early lead by way of a long pass in the opening minutes, but were unable to punch over any more. Lake Butler came from behind to win 13 to 7.

The team went to Deland the following week. The boys never seemed able to get started. The final score was Deland 19, Palatka 0.

Once back in the Azalea Bowl the Maroons showed that they could not be out-fought. Green Cove Springs put up a good fight, but it wasn't quite good enough. Green Cove Springs 0, Palatka 31.

Eustis, one of the heaviest high school teams in the state, took an easy win over Palatka. Eustis 26, Palatka 7.

The Hastings-Palatka game, always one of the hardest fought, ended in a stalemate. Hastings 0, Palatka 0.

When Starke furnishes the opposition for Palatka, you can always expect anything; but this year neither team was able to muster enough strength to push over a touch-down. Starke 0, Palatka 0.

The Seabreeze (Daytona) game lacked nothing but a score. It was a thriller from opening kick-off to closing whistle. The score, Seabreeze 0, Palatka 0.

The Maroons then journeyed to Jacksonville Beach. Fletcher simply outclassed and outscored Palatka, but the fighting Maroons could not be out-fought. The scoreboard read Fletcher 26, Palatka 0.

The boys once again showed that they could not be denied. With New Smyrna furnishing the opposition, the Maroons really went to town. After scoring almost at will, Palatka came out on the long end of a 26 to 0 score.

The game with St. Augustine not only marked the closing of the high school football career for many, but also renewed the keen rivalry, accumulated over a number of years, between the two schools. The Mullets, East Central Conference Chumps (Champs), THOUGHT that they had won the game before it started. The Maroons had other ideas on the subject. The boys put every bit of their strength into their blocks and tackles. When the game had ended, you could read the score on the faces of the Maroons—Palatka 6, Mullets 0.
