Wink Criswell

As he approaches, one is taken by the rugged good looks — square jaw, bronzed skin, and the close-cropped gray hair that lends an air of veneration. The lips part and expose a row of gleaming teeth — “How ya doin?” comes the familiar greeting, if he speaks at all. Without demanding it, he has one’s respect, and deservedly, too. This is WINK CRISWELL. It is to him, who stands tall in ideals as well as stature, that the class of 1968 dedicates this book.

Some people speak with charm and walk with grace
And dazzle lesser mortals with the smile some deity prescribed for their enchanting face.

Some people laugh and tease
And have long legs and wear
Long hair—
And swish it around their necks—
And sometimes wear it up to please,
As though it were an easy
Thing—to be a goddess here.

Some people have a perfect voice
Accent their words just so—with Proper British diction
So that they are not words at all
But symphonic composition.

Some people do no ordinary thing
They more than breathe—they laugh and cry and sing
Just such a one the Muses sent to us
And in "exchange" we've turned to gold—from dust.

—MLT

A burro once, sent by express,
His shipping ticket on his bridle,
Ate up his name and his address,
And in some warehouse, standing idle,
He waited till he like to died.
The moral hardly needs the showing:
Don't keep things locked up deep inside—
Say who you are and where you're going.

—Walker Gibson

Modern Literature was originated by Mr. Bill Townsend in the fall of 1967. Modern Literature is a course designed to give juniors some insight into both original English works and translation of foreign works, which are not generally included in a standard English Text. The course covers all types of literature starting with Tom Jones, an eighteenth century novel, and following through to contemporary times. The modern literature class was organized with the hope of gaining some insight into the literary works of man.

NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE REPRESENTATIVE SEZ:

A "hippie" is a person with misapprehensions who looks it; but even non-hippies have misapprehensions about life insurance. Here are a few of them, with complete refutations:

1. YOU HAVE TO DIE TO WIN. Not true. Almost 65% of life insurance payments go to living policyholders. Brunettes think you have to DYE to win, but blondes know better!

2. IF YOU MISS A PREMIUM YOU LOSE YOUR POLICY. Nay. Next to impossible. This is a "buyer's" contract and, consequently, many safety valves are built in to help if you have been forgetful, or in a financial "squeeze".

3. LIFE INSURANCE DOESN'T KEEP PACE WITH INFLATION. Actually, it does, very nicely. When dollars lose value—the money is simply cheaper at both ends.

4. THEY PUT IN ALL THAT FINE PRINT JUST TO CONFUSE YOU. Quite the contrary. Every clause is there for YOUR benefit, and, your life insurance contract is a UNILATERAL contract.

... SPECIAL NOTE ...

Every senior who brings his annual by my office and tells me what a unilateral contract is, will be treated to the biggest MILK SHAKE in town. Could also be a good definition of a "hippie"!

It has been nice knowing you this Past year. Stay as sweet as you are Now and you will go far

"Dennis The Menace"

The 1968 Maroon Memories was made possible by the various businessmen of Palatka area who advertised in our yearbook. The Class of '68 genuinely thanks these businessmen and urges you to patronize them.

What I wonder is
Who will love my flowers?
I gathered them
In singing
Setting the sun
Came warming
My eyes in air
Beautiful beautiful
Air go pinkly
Down sunning go
I gathered my Own flowers
I chose them
Cautiously and Hummed my very Favorite
Songs
Oh my fond little Happiness but
What I wonder is
Who will love
My flowers?

AFTERWORD

"Will today's youth wake up and accept the challenges of Americanism? Will they be willing to die for what is right. Will they be willing to be labeled an 'American'. I hope so, for if we're not, someday you may be calling your classmate 'Comrade'."

— Ted Brown

It is our will that is being tried, and not our strength; our sense of purpose, and not our ability to achieve . . . Our Goal is—

Peace

God Help Us

Out through the fields and the woods
 And over the walls I have wended;
 I have climbed the hills of view
 And looked at the world, and descended;
 I have come by the highway home,
 And lo,

It Is Ended —
