FOREWORD

*If sailor tales to sailor tunes,
Storm and adventure, heat and cold,
If schooners, islands, and maroons
And Buccaneers and buried Gold,
And all the old romances, retold
Exactly in the ancient way,
Can please, as me they pleased of old,
The wiser youngsters of today.*

*. . . . So be it, and fall on! If not
If studious youth no longer crave,
His ancient appetites forgot,
Kingston, or Ballantyne the brave,
Or Cooper of the wood and wave;
So be it, also! And may I
And all my pirates share the grave
Where these and their creations lie!*

IN MEMORIAM

(To Clarence Guilford)

Tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow!
Youth dreams of the coming days,
When with fame and fortune accomplished,
He will have served in countless ways.

The joy of perfected service,
The light of reflected fame,
Either hoped for or done bring pleasure;
To youth they are one and the same.

Some strive and live to accomplish;
Some dream and die too soon;
Many live to ripe old ages;
Others see not the youthful noon.

"Goofy" dreamed and strived—then wavered,
His thread of life was spun;
Grim tragedy stalked among us
And Clarence was the chosen one.

Old classmate, we'll not forget you;
We'll remember you to the end;
This page we emblazon in glory;
It's reserved by us to "A Friend."

OUR ALMA MATER

Once again here as schoolmates assembled,
We fain would lift our hearts in song,
To our High School, our dear Alma Mater;
Let gladness our moments prolong.
We are proud of our lads and our lassies,
Of honors won in days gone by;
So here's a cheer for our old High School,
For our old High School, our dear old HIGH.

(Chorus)

Here's to our classes, here's to our lassies,
Here's to the lads they adore;
Here's to the SENIORS so mighty, JUNIORS so flighty
FRESHIES and SOPHOMORES.
Let mirth and gladness banish all sadness
And as the days go by
You'll find us ready and steady,
Always boasting for our old High.

Soon for us will our school days be ended,
And dreams of youth that fade so fast;
And we know that our hearts oft will ponder
On memories of scenes that are past.
There are joys that will long be remembered,
And friendships, too, that ne'er will die;
So here's a cheer for our old High School,
For our old High School, our dear old High.

PROPHECY

CLASS OF 1929

There I stood on the beach of a small island in the Pacific, where I had been shipwrecked years before. Indeed so many years had passed that I now could no longer number them.

Usually, I felt only despair and discouragement. However, on this day I seemed to have a feeling of curious elation, such as comes as a premonition of good luck. As I paced up and down on the hard sand, my eyes swept the water in search of some sign that I might interpret as a hope of rescue. Suddenly there appeared in the breakers an object resembling a cask. I ran to the edge of the water with eager expectations. I managed to get the prized discovery to land, and frantic with excitement, broke the lock of the cask. A look inside revealed a great pile of papers—newspapers!

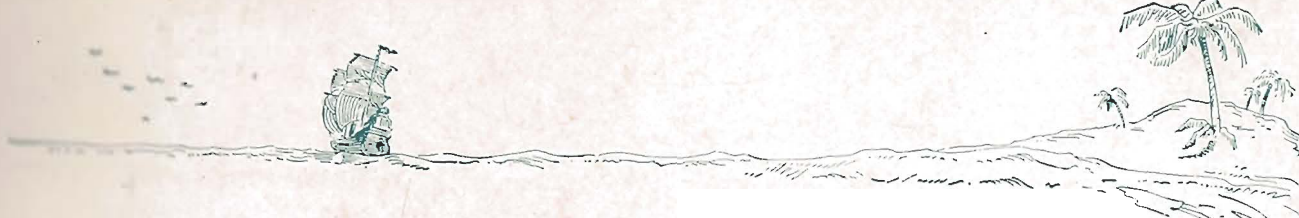

Breathlessly I started to examine these, hoping to find news of the outside world. I actually cried out from sheer happiness when I found that my papers were none other than The Putnam Journal, a big daily edited by my old classmate, Harold Whitten. Every copy was full of news from all over the world. But what delighted me beyond measure was the fact that there I found accounts of the doings of many of the members of the grand old class of 1929. Below are recorded some of the news that interested me most:

Senator Q. I. Roberts had lived up to the expectations of the class and had become one of the most famous orators of the country. His last speech had won success for a bill appropriating money for several enormous dams and bridges in the west. I saw in the same paper that Allen Johannesen, with his able assistant, LeRoy McRae, had been awarded the contracts for building many of these.

In another paper there was an article by Prof. Byron K. Andrews of Columbia University. In this article, Professor Andrews called attention to the fact that most married women who had become famous kept their maiden names. Among those listed were Betty Hutt, the modern Pavlova, married to a congressman from Florida; Elizabeth Yeagley, well known moving picture star, whose wonderful talent had won for her a place in the movie world. Margaret Hutt, married to a famous surgeon, Dr. L. D. Miller, had become a famous poetess. Marcia White was a well known club woman in Florida.

In these papers were interviews with a number of famous people. There was one with Prof. George Beck, Dean of Southwestern University at Palatka; another with Prof. Robert Jones, of the Manual Training Department of Vassar College; another with Miss Edna Segree, State Superintendent of Kindergarten Teachers. Miss Anna Willmott, nationally known librarian, gave out an interview on the plausibility of establishing libraries in every business house in every city in the land.

Prominent among the theatrical notices was the review of Miss Mary Shelley's latest triumph as a Metropolitan star. Albert Gray was an active performer on the vaudeville stage.

Miss Estelle Davis was cited as the nation's most famous coach. She was particularly famous as a basket-ball mentor, being at that time in charge of the international champion 'Gators from the University of Florida. Gertrude Hogeboom had just received an award from an art school in Paris for her famous magazine covers. Cora Solano was known as the assistant of her well known aviator husband, and Beatrice Ecker as the wife of a big motorcycle dealer. Floye Jones was one of the most popular novelists of her day, her latest book having just appeared.

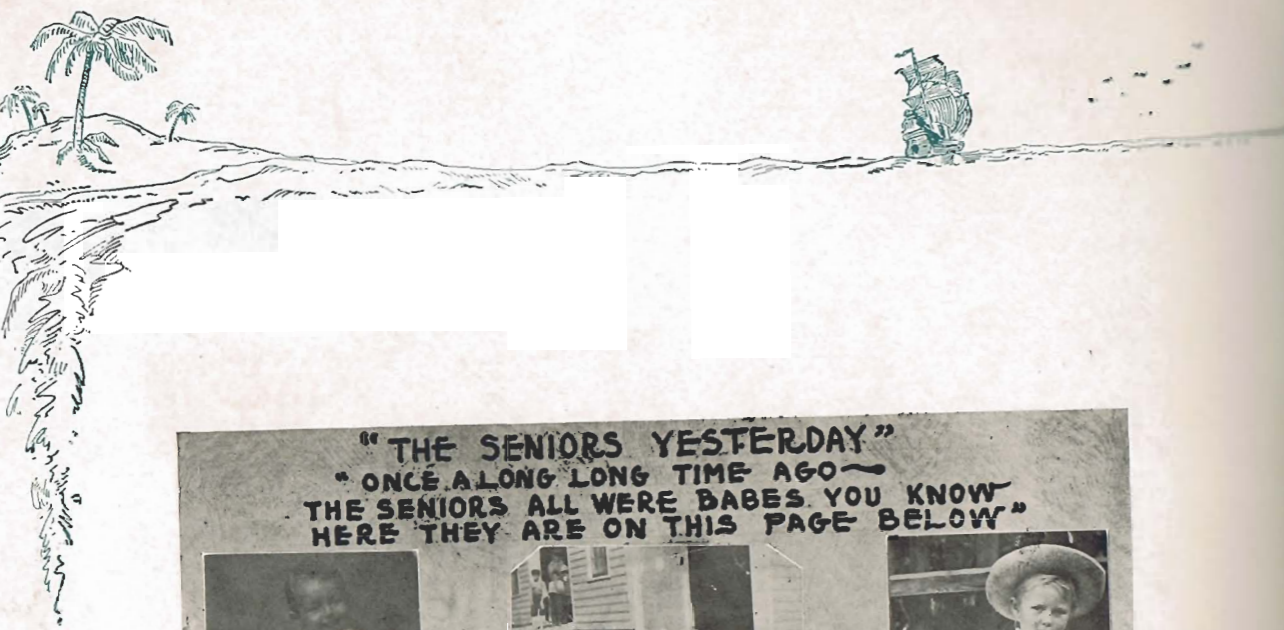

Ordelle Mullis had an advertisement in one of the papers telling of his branch office in Palatka. He was a builder and designer of buildings guaranteed to be constructed without a stick of timber. Walburg Steen was a distinguished civil engineer in the employ of the government. George Thigpen was Mayor of East Palatka, a city which had apparently grown to great size. Miss Jane Justin was president of the National Federation of Women's Clubs.

"The two Olivers of our class," I said to myself, "must be wealthy men about town, for their names are mentioned in almost every social item." Katie Walton was called one of the most brilliant lawyers of the day. An item called attention to the fact that Edna Hancock, though married, was teaching Home Economics in old Putnam High. Imagine Inez Kane as teacher of interpretative dancing! Georgia Black and Nan Caynor were both nurses in the big hospital at Palatka. Lucille Conway was the owner of "Lucille's Frock Shoppe," and Milton Conway was the proprietor of a chain of filling stations for airplanes. Announcement was also made that Florida citrus fruit is much more in demand than that from California. The reason set forth for this was the wonderful advertising efforts of William Bailey, who has discovered the selling secret of Florida fruit.

When I picked up the last paper, my attention was called to a bold headline referring to the report of John Dunklin concerning a new scientific method which he expected to try out in an attempt to locate Francis Marion Marvick, who had been wrecked on one of the Pacific islands. The article went on to say that she had been lost at sea while on a trip abroad and that so far every effort to locate her had been futile.

"At last my prayers may be answered," I cried. Indeed, I now feel confident that it is only a matter of time until I shall be discovered and restored to civilization. My absence has meant much to the world; it could ill do without my wisdom. I know that everything will be done to get me back where the world can profit by my wisdom and goodness.

—FRANCIS MARION MARVICK.

JUNIOR POEM

One morning when arriving at school, late,
 This is the circumstance that met my fate;
 As if to punish me for my crime,
 They informed me I should write a rhyme,
 Proclaiming the talents of this Junior Class.

Such a subject is inspiration,
 Strange, a poet is not my reputation.
 Nevertheless, I shall do my best,
 And let my classmates do the rest,
 In spreading laurels for this Junior Class.

Oh we are the class of nineteen-thirty.
 In athletics never play dirty.
 We contribute players to every team,
 And make the faces of the crowd beam,
 As they bring fame to this Junior Class.

Of course we are intellectual and use our brains
 And get our lessons with no small pains;
 And when the school some problems undertake
 With the object of money to make,
 They can always depend on this Junior Class.

A TOAST TO THE SENIORS

It is a moving sight to see
That last fair day at school;
Where go our youth so merrily
To seek the world's wide rule.

Not as the fledgling from their nest
Spurned by the mother-bird—
They march as heroes to their rest
By high ambitions spurred!

How sweet the girls look with their sheep-skin
The boys, how brave and tall!
Their unmarked visages a-light
In answer to life's call!

What fine ideals do they voice,
Their purposes how clear!
Well may the waiting city rejoice
To see such aid so near!

For here our future rulers stand—
Within their breasts the homes
That shall rejuvenate the land
And rear its temple domes.

Go forth! and may the future age
See Freedom's light still bright,
Through those who shall, on history's page,
Their deeds of kindness write.

—By a "RAT."

Basket-Ball

CAPTAIN ESTELLE DAVIS
All-State Forward

Estelle was a wonderful forward and her loss will certainly be felt next year. This wonder captain was the big feature of the Wildcat games this year.

SARAH MOBLEY
Mascot

This baby edition of the Wildcats was a constant inspiration to the team.

NELLIE ELLERBE
Coach

At the start of the season many skeptics doubted that the Wildcats could develop into anything like a good team. Their record speaks for their coach.

THE SQUAD
Florida High School Champions

MARY BROWNE
All-State Guard

Mary was just about as perfect a guard as anyone could hope for. In glancing over the records on the opposition you will notice a total lack of victories. When you do this just give Mary a thought.

PEGGY HAILE
Running-Center

Peggy was always in there fighting and in the two running centers Audrey and Peggy, both Juniors, the Cats have a wonderful pair.

VIRGINIA STANTON
Second All-State Guard

Virginia was a very capable running mate for Mary and in these two, Coach Ellerbe has one perfect pair of guards. Stanton also is only a Junior and Wildcat supporters are banking on her next year.

MARGARET HUTT

All-State Jumping Center—Manager

Margaret was a mighty sweet center and our great regret is that she is graduating. Not only a star player, she was an excellent and very business-like manager.

FRANKEE WHITTHORNE

Forward

Frankee's pass work was unexcelled. She was also a wonder on overhand shots and has one more year to play. The pair, Estelle and Frankee, fit in just right and for a point-producing combination they will be hard to equal.

AUDREY HOGEBOOM

Running-Center

One hard playing little center, Audrey was extremely consistent in practice as well as playing. She could not only be depended on in an emergency to come through and come through fast but was exceedingly popular with the fans.

MARCIA WHITE

Guard

Marcia was forever trying, and our only regret is that this is her last year, due to the fact that she is a Senior. She could be relied upon at any time to go in and play a hard, clean game.

BETTY MATTOX

Jumping-Center

Betty is going to make a fine center next year. She is just built that way; she is quick on the tip-off and ever alert. We are expecting Betty to come through next year and we know she will.

EMILY HUTT

Forward

Emily has a handy way about her of throwing goals and playing an all-around good game. She is only a Sophomore and promises much for next year. Next year she will be the only one of the famous Hutt trio left.

COACH CECIL BECK

With only two regulars from last year, Beck turned out a team which ranked second in the conference and third in the district.

CAPTAIN SHAW BUCK
Second All-Sectional Running Guard
The team could not have selected a better leader than Shaw. An excellent player in any position.

Q. I. ROBERTS
All-Sectional Center
His first year out, Q. I.'s ability to play a hard, clean game and his shooting ability placed him on the All-Sectional.

"GREASY" MINTON
Standing Guard

A good all-around guard who could be depended upon at any time. Captain-elect for next year.

GEORGE BECK
Forward

His first and last year on the Maroons this bespectacled three-sport star was not only a good forward but a favorite with the fans as well.

CLAUDE HARPER

Claude, with a little more height and weight should develop into a real star. He already has a good eye for the basket and is only a Sophomore in school.

TOM MOBLEY

Tom is also young in the art of basketball but we are expecting him to make a first team berth next year. Also a Sophomore.

LEROY McRAE
Forward

This tall Senior was excellent on both offense and defense. His ability to ring baskets was above the average and he is one of the three who will graduate.

HOLLYDAY HUDGINS

"Bo" played a wonderful defensive game and although a Senior will have one more year on the team. His ability at ringing up points made him very popular with the fans.

"BOBBY" JONES

Bobby had the misfortune of injuring his foot in the second game of the season and this completed his basket-ball career. His loss was felt during the season as he was an excellent player.

The Palatka "Maroons"

LYLE BUCK . . . . . Captain
 CECIL BECK . . . . . Coach

This year's team is composed of practically the same members as the Maroon team of last year, which after going through the season undefeated and copping both the Conference and District titles, went to the State Tournament at Orlando, where they lost to the State Champion Orlando team by one run in the semi-finals of the tournament. The greatest loss to the Maroon hopes for this year was the tragic death of Clarence Guilford, All-State Third Baseman, who was killed in an automobile accident last fall. However, the shifting of Shaw Buck to third base and the addition of "Bobby" Jones to replace Shaw at first has solved this problem. Maroon supporters from all over the state are looking for the boys to come through this year with a state champion team and we are all confident that they will do their best.

G. Beck: "I met a girl last night who had never been necked."

G. Thigpen: "Gosh, introduce me to her. I'd like to meet a girl like that myself!"

G. Beck: "Well, she's not like that now."

*****

A Jew and an Irishman were on board a ship bound for Ireland.

Irishman (catching sight of his fatherland): "Hurrah for Ireland."

Jew (riled): "Hurrah for hell!"

Irishman: "That's right. Every man for his own country."

*****

Bessie: "What kind of a car have you?"

Albert: "Oh, a runabout. You know—run about a mile, then stop."

*****

Mary: "Tell me, Frankee, what does the Washington monument stand for?"

Frankee: "Well, you see, ignorance, it would look sort of silly lying down."

*****

Miss Jones could only find two aisle seats in the theater—one behind the other. Wishing to have her sister next to her, she turned and cautiously surveyed Mr. Morrow in the next seat. Finally she leaned over and timidly addressed him: "I beg your pardon, but are you alone?"

Mr. Morrow, without turning his head the slightest bit, but twisting his mouth around and shielding it with his hand, muttered:

"Cut it out, kid; cut it out! My wife's with me."

*****

Betty: "I heard that guy you were out with last night is awfully stingy."

Marcia: "Stingy? Dearie, if he'd a bought me a bag of peanuts I'd a got shell shock!"

"Rastus!"

"What you want, Mandy?"

"Don't forget to fetch me home a bar of tar soap. Ah aims to keep my schoolgirl complexion."

*****

L. D.: "I've had a terrible warning of approaching death."

M. Hutt: "No, really?"

L. D.: "Yes; I bought one of those new lifetime pens, and it's broken."

*****

One time on the Texas frontier a man came into camp leading an old dog.

"How much for the dog?" asked a bystander.

"Just fifty dollars," answered the leader.

"I'll give you five dollars," said the other.

The leader stopped short as if in amazement, then slowly replied:

"Stranger, I ain't a-goin' to let a little matter of forty-five dollars stand between me and a dog trade. The dog's yours."

*****

A soldier went to his colonel and asked for leave to go home to help his wife with the spring housecleaning.

"I don't like to refuse you," said the colonel, "but I've just received a letter from your wife saying that you are of no use around the house."

The soldier saluted and turned to go. At the door he stopped, turned and remarked:

"Colonel, there are two persons in this regiment who handle the truth loosely, and I'm one of them. I'm not married."

*****

Peggy: "Please don't take advantage of my innocence."

George: "Don't go back so far."

"Why take life so seriously?? You'll never get out of it alive."

*****

Motorist: "Will you please tell me if this is the third turn to the left after the right turn at the second crossroad?"

*****

A BIG DAM!

Steen (changing tire): "Muscle Shoals!"

Q. L. "Why Muscle Shoals?"

Steen: "It's the biggest dam I know of."

*****

A him to a her flea: "Marry me or I'll go to the dogs."

*****

HE'LL LEARN

"I can't marry him, mother. He's an atheist and doesn't believe there's a hell."

"Marry him, my dear, and between us we'll convince him that he is wrong."

*****

INDEFINITELY POSTPONED

"Johnny," said his aunt, "did you enjoy the book I sent you on your birthday?"

"Hain't looked at it yet."

"Why, how is that?"

"'Cause ma said I'd have to wash my hands when I read it."

*****

Teacher: "When George Washington was your age he was a surveyor."

Boy: "Yes, and when he was your age he was President of the United States."

*****

Judge: "Come now, have you any excuse?"

Motorist: "Well, Your Honor, my wife fell asleep in the back seat."

The railroad engineer drives his car.

"Well," said the dying business man, "you better put in a clause about my employees. To each who have been in my employ for twenty years I bequeath $50,000."

"But," said the lawyer, "you haven't been in business twenty years."

"I know it, man, but it's good advertising."

*****

Poor Bobby Jones is plumb full of bones

All the way from his head to his feet;

His shadow's so thin, if you see where he's been,

He's got to stand there and repeat.

*****

Little Boy: "Please, may I have my arrow?"

Lady: "Why, certainly, where did it fall?"

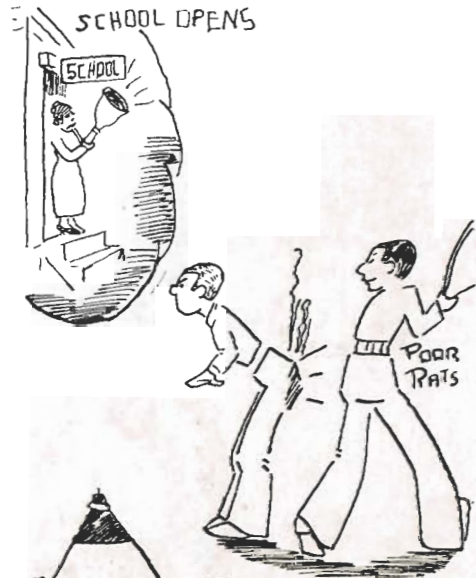

Boy: "I think it is stuck in your cat."

*****

Salesman: "Looking for a skirt, ma'am?"

Irate Wife: "Yes, indeed! About 165 pounds, and he's kept me waiting here an hour."

Farmer: "What are you doing in my apple tree?"

Small Boy: "Believe it or not, mister, I just fell out of an aeroplane."

Smith: "So your son is in coliege? How is he making it?"

There is a boy named "Red"
With a tooth knocked out of his head.
If they hit him some more, it will all be o'er,
Poor Richard, he will be dead.

* * *

We have a boy named Clyde
Who's good at all he has tried.
He can play baseball, but that ain't all,
He can do many things beside.

There was a young man named Lyle
Who had played ball quite awhile.
He picked up his bat and shoved back his hat
And slammed the old pill for a mile.

A girl called Estelle looks buxom and well,
She's not bad to look at a tall.
You'll sure be impressed when she's at her best
In a fast game of basket-ball.
