

1885 Florida State Census

Florida State Gazetteer and Business Directory 1884-1885

(published in 1884)

In Florida U.S. lands were still available through land warrants, purchase or homestead. 60 railroads in Florida were completed or projected: The St. Johns Railroad from the St. Johns River to St. Augustine incorporated Dec. 31, 1859. The 200-mile Atlantic, St. Johns & Indian River RR, inc. Oct. 24, 1881, traveled from St. Augustine to Palatka, Volusia and then Brevard County. The 95-mile Palatka and Indian River RR, inc. Mar. 4, 1881, ran from Palatka to Ansantia, Volusia County, touching Mosquito Lagoon. The 45-mile St. Johns & Halifax River RR, Dec. 12, 1881, ran from "Rollestoun" in Putnam County to New Brittain, Volusia County. The 80-mile Palatka & Sanford RR, Dec. 19, 1881, ran from Palatka to Marion County to Sanford. The 65-mile Jacksonville & Palatka RR, Feb. 11, 1881, ran from Jacksonville, Duval, Clay, Putnam to Palatka. The 380-mile Jacksonville, Tampa & Key West Railroad, incorporated Mar. 4, 1879, with the right to use any convenient gauge, was originally the Tampa-Peace Creek-St. Johns. It was renamed July 5, 1881. The 30-mile Green Cove Springs & Melrose RR, incor. Feb. 28, 1881, was progressing. The 60-mile St. John's & Suwannee River RR ran from Melrose to Alachua County to Fort Fanning on the Suwannee.

The Florida Southern and its branches had 370 miles an acre over 10,000 acres making a total of 3,700,000 total miles of track. Dr. E.S. Francis of Palatka was vice president of the railroad. The Jacksonville, Tampa & Key West RR with 380 miles over 10,000, had 3,800,000 miles of track. The Palatka & Indian River with 75 miles over 6,000 acres had a total of 450,000 miles of track.

Putnam County had 64,170 bearing orange trees with the 1880 yield 7,120,631, a financial value $108,414.80, and was the top producing county in the state. Communities were:

- Banana, located on the northwest corner of Putnam County on the south end of Santa Fe Lake. It is midway between the Atlantic Ocean and the Gulf of Mexico and the highest point between the two. Water from Santa Fe runs to both the Gulf and the Atlantic. Town is "one of the healthiest portions of the State, far away from the bleak, damp atmosphere of the coast and free from the malarial fogs of the larger rivers and prairies." G.W.A. McRae had general merchandise, grist mill and was a physician.
- Beecher was a landing of the east bank of the St. Johns River, 101 miles from Jacksonville.
- Bridgeport was on the west bank of the St. Johns River directly opposite Federal Point.
- Buffalo Bluff was only a landing on the west bank of the St. Johns River, 8 miles from Palatka.
- Cone was a way station on the Florida Southern Railroad, 25 miles west of Palatka.
- Crescent City was "beautifully laid out with streets running at right angles, forming blocks of about four acres, each subdivided again into four lots." Portions were reserved for parks and drives. Lake Stella, "an internal lake" had elevation of 40 ft. above Lake Crescent. Town had post office, M.M. Potter's Potter House and Lake Side House and several private boarding houses, general merchandise stores, a drug store, a blacksmith, a saw and planing mill, photographer, real estate agents, "two very pretty Episcopal churches" and two school houses.
- Crystal Lake was located in the Fruitland Peninsula 3 miles east of Welaka on the St. Johns River and 3 miles west of Pomona on "Crescent or Dun's Lake." There were 5 "very good" general merchandise stores with 3 miles "where most anything can be bought at a fair price. Their stock is complete, and having a good patronage is always fresh."

There were 4 churches within 2 1/2 miles, Methodist, Episcopal and 2 Baptist. "Two good mills supply as good lumber as can be bought at any place. They are supplied with the necessary machinery to cut casings, flooring, lath and in fact any thing that is wanted in a house or in a building line." Price of lumber per 1000 range for rough $10 and $16 for dressed.

- Dancy's Wharf was a landing on the east bank of the St. Johns River.
- Davenport was a steamboat landing on the Ocklawaha River, 34 miles from Palatka.
- Drayton Island, pop. 100, was 3 1/2 miles wide at center of the island and approximately 1870 acres. The island is located in the southwest corner of Putnam County at the entrance to Lake George. Steamers stopped at its wharves. The community had a post office, a boarding house, four physicians, a carpenter, and nurseries.
- East Palatka had no post office. "This very desirable suburb is located on the east side of the river diagonally across from Palatka.
- Etonia" was a "very small settlement, located in the northwestern part of the county."
- Federal Point was located on the east bank of the St. Johns River, 60 miles south of Jacksonville and 15 miles north of Palatka. Mail was delivered daily by St. Johns River steamers to the postmaster-store keeper-real estate agent. The community had another store, a justice of the peace and a physician.
- Fort Brooke was a steamboat landing on the Ocklawaha River, 61 miles from Palatka.
- Fort Gates had been "Discontinued as a post office."
- Francis was six miles east of Palatka with no post office.
- Fruitland, "in the midst of the best orange growing section in the State," was a landing on the St. Johns River thirty miles south of Palatka. Mail was delivered daily to the postmaster who also ran a general store. The community had a boarding house, butchers, a justice of the peace, notary public and wheelwright.
- Georgetown was on the east bank of Lake George where "daily packet to and from Palatka connecting with all ocean steamers, daily mail boat and two fast mails each way and three other steamboats each making three trips per week." The clerk of the county court lived here and the community had a lawyer, general merchandise stores, carpenters, a cooper, a cabinet maker, a painter, an express agent, a shoemaker and a fishery.
- Hart's Orange Grove was a way landing on the east bank of the St. Johns River, seventy-five miles from Jacksonville with no post office.
- Horse Landing was only "a steamboat landing on the St. Johns River, ninety-four miles from Jacksonville."
- Inter Lachen, formerly Blue Pond, was located on the Florida Southern Railroad, eighteen miles from Palatka, as its name says, between two lakes. "It would be hard to find a more beautiful situation for a town. The country is high and rolling, and slopes gradually towards the water." Interlachen had a justice of the peace, general stores, a millinery and notions store, a real estate agent, saw mills and a surveyor.
- Johnson was a way station on the Florida Southern Railroad, twenty-three miles west of Palatka with a general merchandise and railroad agent.

- Keuka was a way station on the Florida Southern RR, 19 miles from Palatka with mail delivered daily to the postmaster, and Keuka had a saw mill, general store, contractors and builders.
  - Lake Como was on the lake of the same name, a "beautiful clear sheet of water about three miles in length and one mile in width" surrounded by orange growers. A landing on Lake Crescent, one and three-quarters miles distant, gave them daily communication with Palatka twenty-five miles away. Mail was delivered daily to the postmaster and general storekeeper. Como had a real estate and insurance agents, a physician, a dentist, a saw mill, timber business, and a contractor and builder.
  - Lake George was on point of land between the lake of same name and its northern outlet. The settlement, a cluster of orange groves and residences, was on the direct route of the St. Johns River steamers. Wharves and post office gave ample opportunities for transportation and communication. Lake George, eighteen miles long and ten miles wide, was well stocked with fish and native fowl.
  - McMeekin was located on Florida Southern Railway, twenty-five miles west of Palatka. It had a good depot, two good stores, a physician, a large saw mill and nurserymen. Principal crops were sea island cotton, corn, oats, rye, sugarcane, sweet potatoes, field peas, chufers, pinders, arrow root and cassava. Many fruits were grown also.
  - McWilliams, later to become Hollister, was a way station of Florida Southern Ry., twelve miles west of Palatka. Mail was delivered daily to the postmaster-general merchandise owner. There was also a blacksmith and a Baptist church.
  - Mannville was a "new town just laid off by W.H. Mann, who has a couple of thousand acres ... cutting up into ten acre lots and setting out groves ... On west side of tract is the beautiful Lake Mirror ... one half mile long, and broad and deep. The water is so clear that the majestic trees are reflected on its surface. On the north is the charming Lake Anita. This romantic lake has an outlet that runs into Lake Ida. The latter lake is over a mile long and has some delightful points suitable for building sites. There was a florist, a shoemaker, furniture dealer, a real estate agent-nurseryman, a general store and a hotel.
  - Melrose was "most prettily located" on southwestern border of Santa Fe Lake. "A little bay makes in, creating a delightful and secluded water resort, where bathing, fishing and boating may be enjoyed." Melrose had a post office, stores, a restaurant, hotels, a physician, a painter, a justice of the peace, a saw mill and cotton gins. There were surveyors, a livery stable, a blacksmith, a wheelwright and a newspaper, the Melrose and Lake Region Pilot. Union High School was also located in the town.
  - Moonstone, on the east bank of the St. Johns River, three miles below Palatka, had no post office.
  - Mount Royal was a landing on the St. Johns River, twenty-five miles south of Palatka and one hundred four miles south of Jacksonville. Mail was delivered daily by DeBary-Baya steamers to the postmaster-general merchant. There were also contractors and builders.
  - Nashua with "perhaps 100 inhabitants" was located on the east side of the St. Johns ninety-seven miles from Jacksonville with a carpenter, a civil engineer, a saw and planing mill, a dressmaker, a millinery, a hay, grain and fertilizer agent and a nurseryman.
  - Norwalk, located on the St. Johns River one hundred miles south of Jacksonville and twenty-five miles south of Palatka, had a justice of the peace, a real estate agent, contractors/builders, a hotel, general merchants, a saw mill and lumber business, blacksmiths, a harness maker, physicians and a druggist and "stationer."
  - Oakwood's post office had been discontinued. Mail went to Palatka.
  - Orange Mills was located in good orange growing section.
  - Palatka, county seat with population of three thousand, was on seventy-five miles south of Jacksonville and 246 miles by rail southeast of Tallahassee. General offices and shops of the Florida Southern Railroad connected Palatka to all point throughout the State and the town was also the head of navigation for ships and ocean steamers on the St. John river, one line.
  - Peniel, located on what was known as Slipper Island, bound on the north, south and west by Slipper branches and on the east by the St. Johns River, six and a half miles long and five miles wide and heavily timbered mainly in yellow pine, had no post office.
  - Penn, a way landing on the St. Johns River, eight miles from Palatka, had a postmaster. C.A. Cowgill was a physician and state representative.
  - Pomona was on Crescent Lake, six miles from Crescent City, six miles from Welaka on the St. Johns River, and twenty-five miles from Palatka by boat. Principal settlement was one mile from Crescent Lake upon the high lands around Lake Broward, a beautiful lake of clear water, three miles long and one mile wide, stocked with black bass and other fish. The town had a general store, a butcher, a justice of the peace, a physician, a blacksmith and a hotel.
  - Putnam Hall, a station on the Florida Southern Railroad, seven and a half miles north of Interlachen, had a couple of country stores, a constable, and a justice of the peace. J.W. Strickland was county school superintendent.
  - San Mateo, on the east bank of the St. Johns River, five miles south of Palatka, had a physician, a dentist, a barber, general merchandise stores, carpenters, hotels, nurseries. A.C. Winters was principal of the San Mateo Institute.
  - Named for the orange transported here from Satsuma, Japan, by Mrs. General Van Volkenburg, Satsuma was twelve miles south of Palatka on the east bank of the St. Johns River in the Fruitland Peninsula.
  - Sauble, a landing on the St. Johns River, four miles north of Palatka, had a post office for the convenience of truckers and orange growers.
  - Shell Bank was a way landing on St. Johns River 195 miles from Jacksonville.
  - Sunday Bluff is a way landing on the Ocklawaha River ninety-six miles from Palatka.
  - Syracuse was a new post office "at which there is as yet no business except that of orange growing."
  - Welaka, a bluff one mile in length on high rolling pine land, was twenty-five miles south of Palatka on the east bank of the river. "A sulphur spring boils up from earth in a fountain of cold, clear, sparkling sulphur water some ten feet in diameter forming a navigable stream emptying into the St. Johns River. Its medicinal properties are second to none and it is recommended for bathing and drinking purposes for both pleasure seekers and invalids."
- Mail and transportation are unsurpassed with two mails daily both north and south in winter and daily mail in the summer. Four to six passenger steamers and freight steamers landed at the wharf year through with freights going to all points north and south." The town had a postmaster-express agent-steamboat agent-nurseryman-real estate agent, a notary public, saw mills and general merchandise stores.
- Westonia was eight miles from Palatka; however, "only a few orange growers get their mail here."

1885 State Census for Putnam County

Voting and census precincts that had been established in 1878 remained basically the same except for Murphy Island, Precinct 6, which became part of Precinct 8, and Precinct 13 was enlarged with a piece of Precinct 8 south of Etonia Creek; however, Precinct 13 lost the large area east of Simms Creek to Precinct 14. These changes were made in 1883 and remained until 1888.
